

What does Wisconsin feel like?

A crochet landcover map of the badger state: pattern and legend

Legend

■ Wetlands & Minor Lakes
Teal blue single crochet alternating back loop only

■ Forest
Sage green honeycomb bauble stitch, layered

■ Urban area
Grey single crochet through both loops

■ Grassland
Sage green or jute tuft stitch with tassles in base layer

■ Agriculture
Jute or fall ombre ribbed stitch through back loop only

■ Major lakes
Alternating blues in zigzag mosaic or wave tufts

■ Other states
Ecru single crochet through both loops

■ State borders
Grey chain stitching layered on top of underlying stitches

Data: Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. (2019). Hydrography (1:24,000), Wisconsin 2019.

Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. (2016). WISCLAND 2 Land Cover (Level 1), Wisconsin 2016.

Scale: 1 stitch ≈ 7km

Projection: Wisconsin Transverse Mercator (1983)

Contact: Andrew Hahn University of Wisconsin-Madison